THE TALK OF THE TOWN"

LOCKPORT TOWNSHIP HIGH SCHOOL

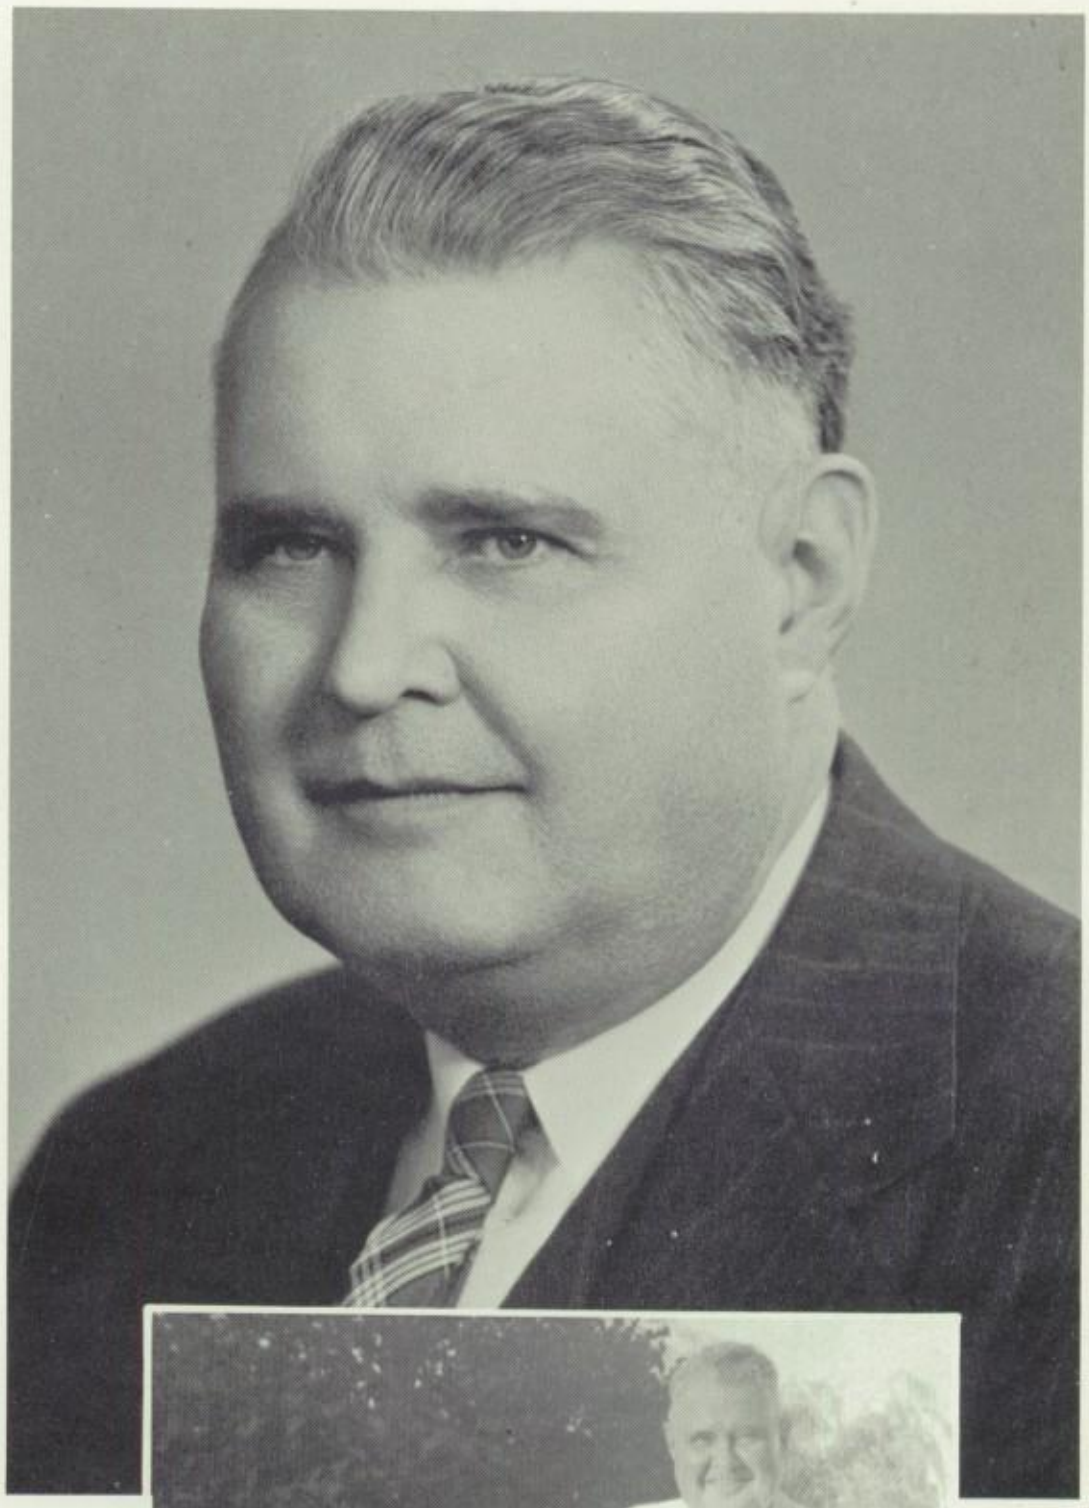
LOCKPORT, ILLINOIS

VOLUME XXXV

DEDICATION

We dedicate this book to the men and women of the Lockport division of the Illinois Bell Telephone Company. It is they who help make LTHS the "talk of the town." Since the recent conversion we simply dial to study together, to get that special date, to carry out the duties required by many of our extra curricular activities, or just to chat. Because of their service to us, we want to show our appreciation by including them as part of the "talk of the town."

IN MEMORIAM



Paul E. White came to Lockport High School in the fall of 1926 where he became head of the business education department. His unexpected death last summer terminated the thirty-three years of service in which he endeavored to pass the torch of knowledge to his many students.

Mr. White received his B.S. degree from Lombard College in Galesburg, Illinois. Continuing his education at Northwestern University, he completed his graduate work for a master's degree.

Mr. White advocated that "a busy man is a happy man," a philosophy which he truly exemplified in his own life every day. He also believed that a man should have a hobby entirely different from his regular job. True to his principles, Mr. White spent many enjoyable "off the job" hours working on his farm in Sturgis, Michigan, on Big Fish Lake.

In his years at Lockport, not only his students, but also many other students who knew Paul White grew to respect and admire him. We honor Mr. White and will long remember him.

FOREWORD

When was the last time you used a telephone? More than likely it was just a short time ago; for in daily life we use the telephone for a variety of reasons — gleaning information, sharing experiences, or just talking for the fun of it. The nucleus of our lives is the small, but indispensable, telephone, around which a majority of our daily activities are centered.

The telephone company is always making improvements and striving toward greater goals. For instance, do you remember when we were without dial phones? Yes, it was a short time ago, but today we in Lockport enjoy the advantages of dialing. In addition we proudly possess an exchange name of our own. Now we can realize the benefits known only to possessors of dial phones.

As in every other locality of the world, we at Lockport, converse about many topics. However, we talk most proudly about our school and all of the things which make it one of the best schools, not only scholastically, but socially, as well.

Now we have a phone call of ultimate importance to make. So let's dial that magical number, which will connect us with all the peope, events, and activities at LTHS. When that party answers, we'll find that Lockport's really something "to talk about." In fact, it's the Talk of the Town . . .

TEmple 8 . . . Somebody is bound to answer. Somebody has to answer!

Oh, at last! I must get the news out.

Push harder! We've got to get these kids into the booth so they can hear the big news!

What a struggle — but it's worth it in order to tell everybody that LTHS is the "talk of the town."

VITAL LINK TO EDUCATION

"A chain is only as strong as its weakest link." This statement has been proven to be true many times and in many different ways. Our school can be compared with this chain, for it is only as strong as its faculty and administrators.

We at LTHS are fortunate to have this strong and excellent combination working for the betterment of our school. With their determination and the cooperation of the student body, LTHS is sure to lead the way in setting the future standards of education.

Our superintendent, Dr. Blatnik, has the responsibility of taking care of many endless tasks. To keep LTHS running smoothly is just one of those jobs that he undertakes with success every year.

Mr. Fink, principal and dean of boys, successfully takes care of many important matters at LTHS.

As director of curriculum, Mr. Aiken sees to it that students choose the subjects which are best suited to their abilities and interest.

With ball and bat the NHS officers and their sponsor are equipped for an afternoon of fun at the annual picnic. STANDING: Alma Lauffer, secretary; Mrs. Mitzit, sponsor. SITTING: Margaret Bennett, treasurer; Joe Darin, president; Marilyn Manthey, vice-president.

". . . Striving in every way to make its ideals the ideals of my school and of my life."

The ideals of the National Honor Society are to excel in leadership, scholarship, service, and character. Not only in school but in everything they do, the members are reminded that their first duty is to serve others. The chapter, composed of twenty-four seniors, tried to carry out this idea as their project for the year. During the first week of school the members wore tags signifying that they were available to give information to any freshman who might need it. A stationery sale was also held as a service to the school.

Various members of the James McKinnon Smith Chapter of National Honor Society took part in the impressive induction ceremony held in the school auditorium. The fifty-one new members were led to the stage by the Honor Guard of the ten highest scholastically ranking freshmen. The climax of the ceremony was the passing of the torch from the old members to the new.

"I pledge myself to uphold the high purposes of this society to which I have been elected, striving in every way by word and deed, to make its ideals, the ideals of my school and of my life."

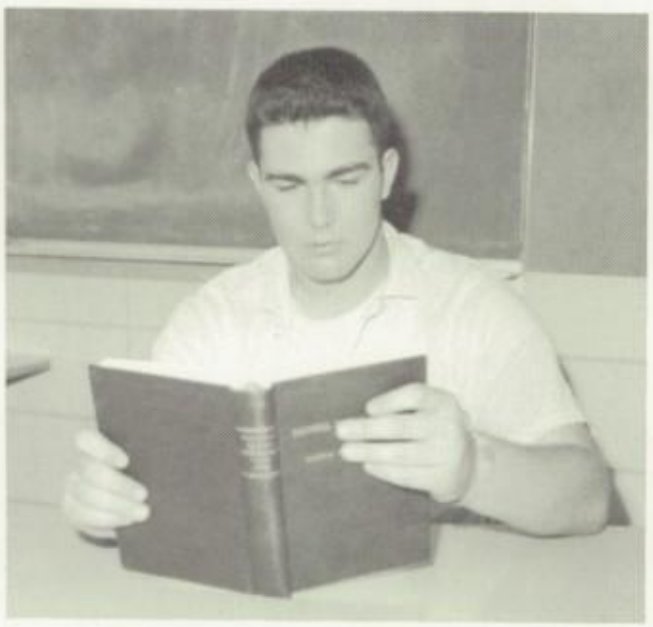
Wayne Parker gratefully accepts the Dekalb Agricultural Award from Mr. Lawrence for outstanding accomplishments in vocational agriculture.

Dennis Singletary presents Dr. Blatnik the senior class gift of $850 for a stage set.



Ranking in the top two per cent of test competitors, David Mitzit is among the winners of the National Merit Test.

TIME, WORK, AND PATIENCE ARE ACKNOWLEDGED

Mr. Pence accepts his retirement gift presented by Marilyn Manthey and Ozzie Ludwig on behalf of the classes of 1959, 1963, and his English classes.

Chris Vancura and Judy Jadron are runners-up to the Mathematics Award, while Tom Hillock receives top honors from Mr. Beseman.

Just as Abraham Lincoln was an honorable man, likewise Betty Anderson received distinction with the DAR Award.

Mrs. Smith proudly awards Deanna Costable the Women's Club Scholarship.

The DeKalb Agriculture Award was given to the senior boy who is outstanding in the field of agriculture. He was chosen for his qualities of scholarship, school leadership, and his work in vocational agriculture.

David Mitzit was recognized as one of the top two per cent of all high school seniors in the United States on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Tests, after he received a superior rating. Several others scored excellant ratings.

The recipient of the Daughters of the American Revolution Award was an example of dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism. The deserving senior girl was chosen by the faculty from nominations of the senior class.

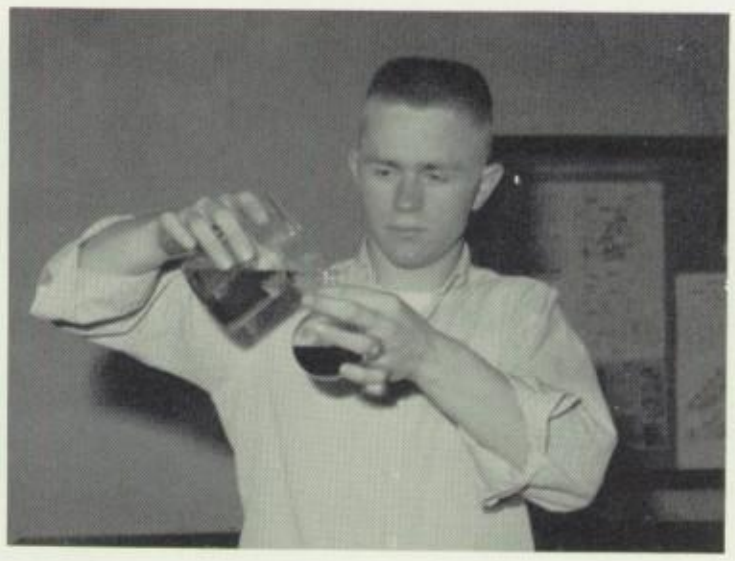
The American Legion Award was given by the John Olson Post of the American Legion. A committee from the American Legion selected one boy and one girl from a total of twelve who were chosen by the senior class and the faculty. The two students who received this award exhibit the highest qualities of scholarship, character, and citizenship.

The Lockport Women's Club Scholarship Award was presented to the senior girl who has maintained a very high scholastic average, has applied for the scholarship, and was very deserving of one.

The Bausch and Lomb Honorary Science Award was presented to the senior student who ranked the highest in his class scholastically and has outstanding achievements in the field of science. It enabled the student to compete for a scholarship to the University of Rochester.

The student to receive the American Chemical Society Award was chosen by his scholarship in mathematics, English, and science, and his accomplishments in the field of science.

Margaret Meadows proves that girls, too, can have scientific minds as she wins the Bausch and Lomb Science Award.



Chris Vancura shows how he won the American Chemical Society Honorary Award.

Good things come in two's, and so it is with the 1960 valedictorians, Mary Ann Becker and Michele Curtis.

It took Betty Anderson and Deanna Costable just a few seconds to receive their salutatorian medals, but four long years to gain such an honor.

ORCHIDS TO

The boys certainly outdid the girls on the National Merit Scholarship Test, as is proven by these recipients of Letters of Commendation: Ed Worst, Taylor Walter, Loran Kimsey, Richard Collopy, Stuart Brown, and Kit Pinn.

For the first time in the history of our school two students were chosen as valedictorians and two as salutatorians. The co-valedictorians ranked at the very top of their class scholastically. To be the number one student of one's class for four years is a great accomplishment; therefore, the gold medal given for this achievement is the highest honor a school can bestow. To have two students rank highest and two in the number two spot is also a great honor for the school.

Quill and Scroll is an honorary society for high school journalists who exhibit high journalistic qualities. Eligibility for membership is based on the student's proficiency in writing, editing, and business management.

In order to be elected, a student must be at least a junior, rank in the upper one-third of his class scholastically, and have done superior work in one of the aforementioned fields. The chosen students are selected by the sponsors of the LOCK and TIMES. Nine juniors and twenty-one seniors were honored with this award.

Recognized for their perfect attendance were: Jim Long, JoAnn Reszel, Tom Braasch, Barbara Wies, Betty Anderson, Edwin Johnson, Carol Wolfe, Charles Fitzgerald, Peter Larsen, and Pat Feithen.

Proof that Stuart Brown and Betty Anderson are excellent choices for the American Legion Award is found as they express their patriotism.

Mixed emotions are displayed on the faces of the seniors during the graduation ceremony.

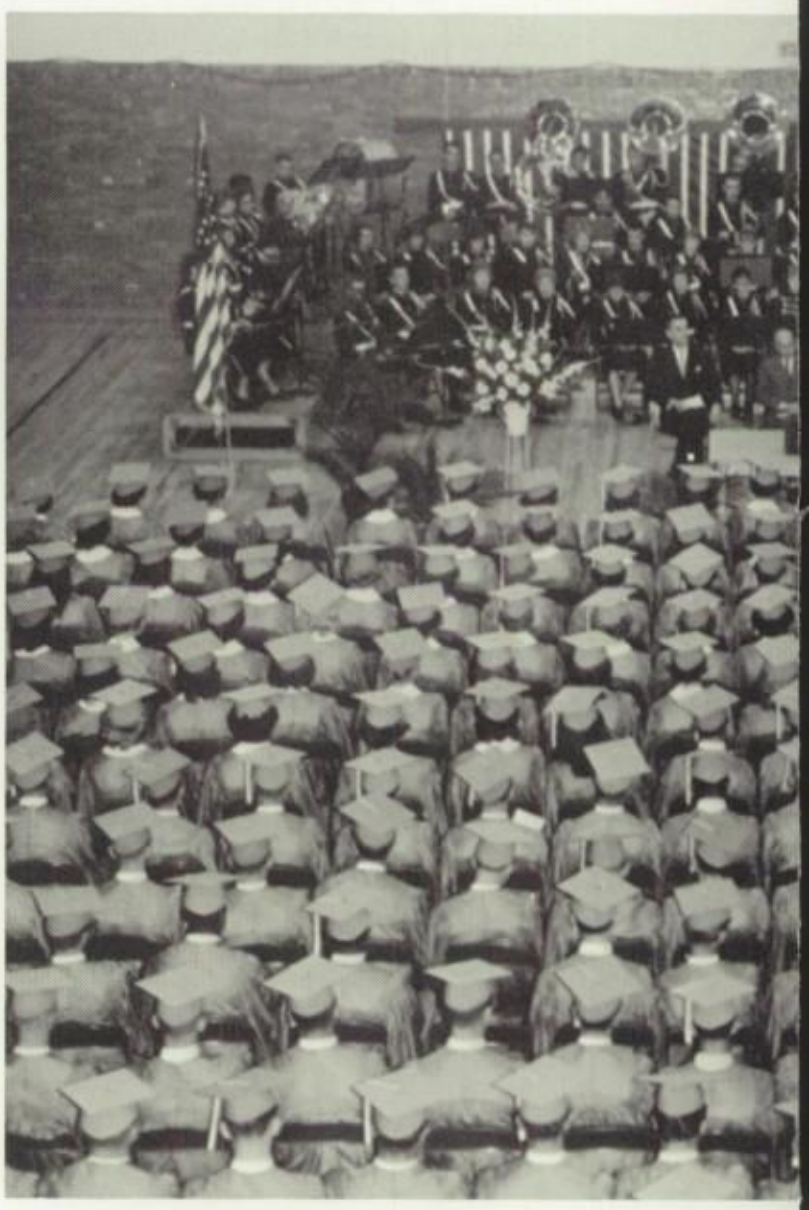
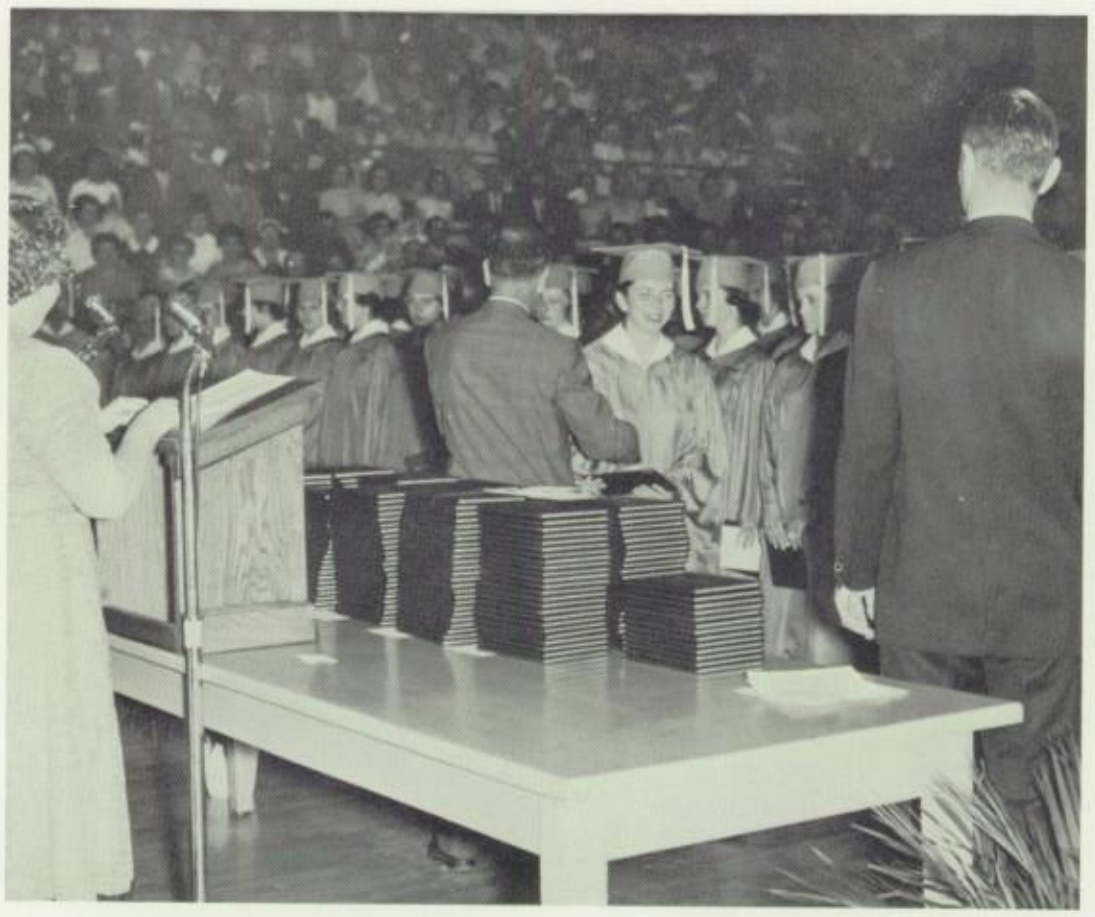
Rev. Larson emphatically makes a point in his address at the Baccalaureate service.



MADE OF THIS . . .

The LTHS Class of 1960 will forever cherish in their memories the outstanding and unforgettable moment on May 31st when they received their diplomas. Dressed in the traditional caps and gowns and hearing the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" in the background, we seniors looked into the past. Our high school days held many new experiences which were often shared with our classmates and teachers. After twelve years of study and hard work, we had achieved our goal. Now, attempting to see what lies in store for the class of 1960, we eagerly view the future.



Edna Burcham beams as she receives her diploma from Mr. Anzzolin, school board president.

"Common sense is the best sense I know of . . ." quotes Marilyn Manthey, student speaker at graduation.

HOMECOMING '59

The French Club's saying, "Long Live the Porters" started off the parade with great enthusiasm.

Student council members form a "chain gang" to pull their float.

"Our queen is like a sweet, sweet rose" is the thought expressed by Chuck Stanley, L Club president.

Excitement, a parade, bands, frenzied activity — all these added up to one word . . . Homecoming! Each year the effort had increased to make it the best one as the doors once again open to welcome the alumni.

The parade in the afternoon was the result of hours of planning and working. After dark, with improvised lighting, the students worked together on the floats, each group striving to make its the best.

As the parade came down the familiar streets of Lockport, everyone cheered for his own float, grudgingly admitting that some of the others were "pretty good." The judges decided that first prize should go to the Sophomore Class float — a gauzy white butterfly nestled among bright flowers, with the theme, "We'd Butter-fly to Victory."

On the windows of stores another group of hardworking students had made their mark with threats to annihilate the visiting team. However, that evening at the game, despite the wildly cheering Porter fans, the game ended in a tie, 13-13.

The dance following the game was one of the highlights of homecoming. The music of Gene Victor's orchestra was enjoyed by everyone. As the King and Queen came forward to be crowned, they were honored by the court and their escorts, freshman Melanie Berta escorted by Jimmy Joe Johnson and sophomore Vivian Long with her escort Dennis Singletary. The junior attendant was Cindy Burger accompanied by Sherwin Zeller and senior Holly Lea whose escort was Chris Vancura. The crowning of King Jim and Queen Judy climaxed the perfect Homecoming day.

Shirley (Virginia Carlson) gave Dino (Bruce Hirner) the affection and understanding he had needed for so long.

The bitter expression on Dino's (Ron DaRosa) face portrays his outlook on life.

DIAL "D" FOR DINO

The conversation between Jackie (Barbara Cheney) and Miss Haines (Mariann Stash) has captured the attention of Shirley (Virginia Carlson) and Dino (Bruce Hirner).

An air of excitement filled the auditorium on the evenings of November 20th and 21st, and the entire Junior Class anticipated the success of their play Dino.

Dino was the story of a boy, who after spending four year in a reform school, was given a final choice before turning to the life of a full-fledged criminal. Mr. Sheridan, the psychiatrist, Shirley, the shy office girl, and even Mr. Mandel, the parole officer, helped to make Dino a heart-warming story never to be forgotten.

Professor Michaels (Bill Kruck) plays college boy, and invites Abigail (Patti Feithen) to her first college dance.

Abigail tries to escape the overly interested boys who hover about her.

SENIORS SIGNAL SUCCESS

Laughter from the large crowd in the auditorium indicated that the audience viewing the Senior class play was highly pleased. This hilarious comedy, "Mother Was a Freshman," was presented on the evenings of March 24th and 25th, and will long be remembered as one of the most successful comedies produced by LTHS.

The story tells of Mrs. Abigail Abbott, who, after the death of her husband, found it necessary to take a scholarship to help send her daughter Susan to college. A great comedy situation evolves when Abigail falls in love with Professor Michaels, in whom Susan is also interested.

The success the play enjoyed was due largely to the valuable advise of faculty members, Mr. Tipler and Miss Narcus, and student director, Kathee Murray.

The addition of an older woman to the campus gives the girls something new to talk about.

They could have danced all night to the dreamy music of the Bill Pappas Orchestra.

Barb Traylor and Ken Fiske would make a mighty tasty morsel for the Midnight Mardi Gras clown.

You get a lot to like from this orchestra; it's the Bill Pappas group.

SPEAKING OF DANCES

The night had barely begun when these freshmen decided to rest awhile.

Queen Pat Thompson is wondering how Jim Drake can possibly be so solemn after being chosen king of Mistletoe Magic.

As Christmas drew near one of the main topics of conversation concerning the holiday season was the approaching semi-formal dance. Sponsored jointly by the band and chorus, Mistletoe Magic was presented in the LTHS gym December 26th and featured the Freddie Mitchell Orchestra.

The gay music, Uncle Mistletoe, and Aunt Holly created the festive atmosphere which reached a climax when King Jim Drake and Queen Pat Thompson reigned over the happy dancers.

All too soon the magic of the mistletoe faded, but the theme of the dance quickly refreshes the mind's memory. "Mistletoe Magic, a dance to remember; you'll never forget the 26th of December."

Happy was the talk dealing with the Student Council's annual semi-formal. The 1960 version was the local harbinger of the Mardi Gras season and was appropriately entitled Midnight Mardi Gras.

Melodies both fast and dreamy came forth from the Bill Pappas Orchestra seated in the unique bandstand constructed of multi-colored streamers. The royal couple, David Goeke and Janet Brainard, shared the coronation dance and masqueraded the rest of the evening beneath golden crowns.

Time flew quickly as the happy dancers circulated under a ceiling of streamers while colored lights illuminated the gay balloons and grotesque masks which adorned the ceiling and walls. At the bewitching hour of 11:30, the orchestra struck up the familiar song which left Midnight Mardi Gras a very special memory for those who attended.

Poor Janice Ayers! If Jack Alexander doesn't rescue her soon she'll be swallowed alive.

RECALLING THE BEST

Donna Gray and Ed Rosetto stopped dancing just long enough to enjoy some punch with Bob Thompson and Mickey Williamson.

Janet Brainard and David Goeke, the royal couple of Midnight Mardi Gras, discuss their unexpected honors.

The tension rose before the announcement of the King and Queen of Mistletoe Magic.

The never-ending wait for pictures to be taken provided a moment to make further plans for the evening.

AN EVENING BENEATH

Rolling waves, sparkling moonlight, and majestic treasures were symbolic of the realistic marine setting for . . . de la Mar. The walls were covered with murals characteristic of a water wonderland. The pale blue ceiling gave the enchanted dancers the deep sea feeling.

We danced in the magic of Freddy Mitchell's orchestra, to music rippling from a gigantic treasure chest at one end of the vast sea. As we sailed to an island of sheerest delight, we found ourselves within the trophy room walls, complete with sandy beach and swaying palm trees at our nearest touch. A soft white and pink shell was opened for the coronation of Queen Sally Farnsworth and King Ed Edson.

The evening flowed on and on . . . then, with the memories of . . . de la Mar locked in our hearts, like the silent, creeping tide, the music was gone.

Dancing in the shadow of the sea-shell throne are Mike Laatz and Bill McCarthy with their charming dates, Jeanine Hickman and Donna McIntyre.

Tin cans for a prom?!! Proving it can be done are Jeannine Cavoretto, Kathy Nicholls, Barb Kapella, Mariann Stash, and Dorothy Kristich.

LOCK DIALS SUCCESS

When Carolyn Yates and Marilyn Manthey, co-editors; Susan Harris, assistant editor; and Mr. Sampson, sponsor; come out of the walk-in closet in the LOCK room with smiles on their faces, work must be running smoothly.

Once again the LOCK dialed success, and the reward of those involved rang out to all.

The one aim of our yearbook staffs was to capture and pass on an interesting and exciting record of student life at LTHS, thus providing a source of pleasant memories for the present and the future. This is the LOCK!

Since the responsibilities of producing the LOCK were many, they were divided between the LOCK Editorial Staff and the LOCK Business Staff.

It was the duty of the Editorial Staff to plan the book in the form of a dummy which has rough drafts of all the pages in the book, having picture arrangements, copy, and headings in the exact shape and size of the finished product. Even before the staff did this, it took the pictures, wrote the copy, and conceived the headings.

The Business Staff's responsibility was to raise the money needed to finish paying for the LOCK, because the price students paid was not even near the production cost. The staff did this by selling LOCK subscriptions, by handling class pictures, and by organizing the LOCK Staff dances.

To the Editorial and Business Staffs of our yearbook went a great deal of credit and thanks for our 1960 LOCK.

Carole Rediehs, assistant business manager, and Edwin Johnson, dance chairman, are interested in the books; but Betty Landon, dance chairman, and Patti Feithen, business manager, apparently have a private joke.

The tired LOCK leaders go home after a long session of work. Jackie Ward, photographer; Joe Darin, copy editor; Sandy Leinbach, photography editor; Larry Mudron and Susan Brown, sports editors; Sharon Fisher, typing editor; Margaret Bennett, art editor; and Michele Curtis, assistant copy editor.

Mr. Sampson finally made it to the other side of the camera. Say "cheese!"

"You see, Franklin, these are the general rules for writing copy for the LOCK," informs Mildred Harper as Donna Maske approves.

BUSY SIGNAL

Having one of the largest jobs on the staff, the class editors must meet to compare problems. Cheryl Bockholdt, Grace Bachmann, Donna Woodhouse, Sally Johnson, Marian Scheuber, Mary Ann Becker, Audrey Nordstrom, Sandy Pauly.

Added to the long list of extra curricular activities have been the French and Spanish Clubs. The common aims of these two organizations were to augment the students' knowledge of the French and Spanish cultures and to practice speaking their chosen language.

Discussions and lectures, films, reports, and music from Latin America and Spain have created a growing understanding for the Spanish Club. In the future this club contemplates field trips to various places of interest.

The French Club planned a very interesting and worthwhile program for its first year. Seeing movies, hearing lectures, presenting plays, and visiting a French restaurant rounded out the group's activities.

The hope of all members is that these two clubs will continue to be a part of extra curricular activities for many years to come at Lockport High School.

The holiday spirit was high at the French Club's Christmas party where the members observed many French customs. STANDING: Jerry Cunico, Ronald Miller, Pamela Sanders, Susan Brown, Reenie Radakovich, Janet Porter, Vivian Long, Mr. DeSandre, Miss Emmons, Constance Govostis, Deanna Costable, Peggy Carter. SEATED: Diane Burke, vice-president; Kathleen Ogren, president; Margaret Bennett, treasurer; Mary Grace Pesavento, secretary.

THE CALL —

To make LTHS a better school and to promote good school citizenship is the aim of the Student Council.

THE CALLED —

Co-president, elected by the entire student body, directed the activities of the Council. Co-operating with them to make the work successful were the representatives from each of the forty-eight homerooms and the presidents of the eighteen organizations and the four classes.

ON CALL

THE ANSWER TO THE CALL —

From before the first class of the day until after the dismissal bell had rung, the Student Council was at work. Some of the Council members handled the "lost and found" service for the school while others directed their talents toward the promotion of the student assemblies. At Christmas time the members turned into Santa's helpers as they took charge of the Christmas card service and distributed more than 15,000 cards to the students.

A special project for the Student Council was the coordinating of the Homecoming activities. They assigned portions of the homecoming festivities to various organizations and classes in order to give more students a chance for active participation.

In the spring the Student Council put its mark on the social calendar by sponsoring its annual dance.

The co-presidents, Jimmy Joe Johnson and Stu Brown, are surrounded by their assistants; Mary Ann Becker, publicity co-chairman; Joe Darin, welfare chairman; Dennis Singletary, treasurer; Audrey Nordstrom, program chairman; Pat Feithen, social chairman; Sandy Leinbach, publicity co-chairman; Scott Rodeghiero, in-service chairman; Chuck Stanley, financial chairman; Kathee Murray, secretary.

The Lockport Township High School Band, nationally known for its fine performances, participated and won many competitive events throughout the year. During the summer the band took top honors in the Tournament of Music at Riverview Amusement Park in Chicago, Illinois.

The Band also participated in the annual Band Day at Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois. Due to inclement weather, however, the performance of the day was cancelled.

On October 31, the Band took part in the North Central College Homecoming parade. Again Lockport distinguished itself by taking first place.

At the 27th annual band banquet, "Time for Tempo," held on January 29, Harold Walters, famous American composer, was the guest speaker. Also four seniors: Bill Luebs, Susan Brown, Larry Mudron, and Holly Lea; gave inspiring speeches on their experiences in their four years with the band.

For the band seniors, February 14 not only marked the day of Cupid, but it was the very last concert in their high school career. After many months of laborious practice, the musicians rendered such difficult and famous selections as 1812 Overture and Slavonic Rhapsody. The group was especially pleased to have Robert Broadway of Cornell College as a guest vocalist. For the latter part of the performance, the Band and chorus combined their efforts to provide a patriotic salute to the many February holidays.

To show their appreciation for the Band's many endeavors the Band Boosters Association treated the musicians to an all day ski trip in Williams' Bay, Wisconsin. Band students and parents alike had an enjoyable day in the beautiful environment of our northern neighbor state.

As the year came to an end, one could not help but realize that without the Band the school year would not have been complete. Just think what games, plays, assemblies, and all other school functions would have done without that group known as the Band.

THE CHORDS OF THE CHORUSES

Sorting the robes is a big job, but the choral officers Sally Farnsworth, secretary; Pat Feithen, treasurer; Keith LeGrand, vice-president; Alma Lauffer, president; and Donna Gray, librarian; with the help of Mr. Ohlsen, are enjoying it.

The A Cappella Choir provided many enjoyable programs for our holiday assemblies. Besides singing for these, they performed at Open House and at the National Honor Society induction ceremony. The annual spring concert, Musical Moods, was the highlight of the year. It was held April 29, and featured the better choral classics as well as currently popular show tunes.

The Music Master, formerly called the Madrigals, also sang for many school functions, club organizations, and churches. This select group was chosen from the whole Choral Department.

The Freshman Boys' Glee Club and the Freshman-Sophomore Girls' Chorus spent much of their time learning the fundamentals of music, although they took part in a few programs during the course of the year. Evidently they learned quickly, having presented some fine competition for the other groups.

Much work and energy went into each performance, but the satisfaction of presenting a fine program made it well worth their while.

This was the main purpose of the Choral Department — to bring the pleasure of music to others, as well as to themselves.

OUR GOAL . . . TO BE A TEACHER

The large enrollment of the Future Teachers of America Club showed the interest and enthusiasm that was brought about within the last seven years. Membership was offered and encouraged to anyone interested in a teaching career.

Regular meetings were held and committees were organized to insure interesting and perhaps valuable experiences throughout the year. Discussion panels, movies, and lectures concerning the many phases of teaching proved very useful.

The highlight of the year, when junior and senior members were allowed to practice teach in grade schools, brought much anticipation. They spent two days in the schools, using the first to observe and the second to teach. This did not only bring pleasure but also helped the students to decide many things about their teaching career.

As the year was coming to a close, the club attended the state convention. Mixing with others and striving to learn more has helped the Future Teachers of America to become "worthy of the high office of teacher."

"What do you want to be when you grow up?" This was one question which never stumped the Future Farmers of America. They had their feet firmly on the ground and their eyes fixed on the horizon. Thanks to these boys the homes of the future will have healthful food on their tables. This organization, besides stressing agriculture for a career, also gave helpful tips on good farming to its members.

The Future Farmers of America attended the International Livestock Show in Chicago. Many of these members will be doing the showing instead of the watching in the future. Several members of our chapter and Mr. Lawrence attended the National FFA Convention held in Kansas City, and the state convention in Chicago.

By entering exhibits in various contests throughout the state, many members captured awards. The club and the school were particularly proud of Wayne Parker who was named State Farmer, a very coveted title.

The efforts of these "sod tillers" will eventually make them a credit to the agricultural field.

There's a meeting tonight! FFA officers review the constitution in preparation for the meeting. BACK ROW: Cliff LeGrand, reporter; George Anderson, secretary; Larry Eipers, reporter; Jerry Kling, treasurer; Howard Hawes, *sentinel. It is a proud moment for Audrey Nordstrom, Edna Burcham, and Della Smith as they receive their Future Nurses pins from Mrs. Smith, president of the Lockport Women's Club.

Good nurses are always in demand, and the Future Nurses of America are constantly preparing themselves to enter the broad and wonderful field of nursing.

Throughout the school year, the members of the LTHS chapter held semi-monthly meetings. Interesting speakers chosen from the field of medicine made the meetings important events for the girls and boys who attended.

Field trips to nearby hospitals gave the members a true picture of their futures as very important members of the community. The opportunity to see movies and slides of doctors and nurses in action was well used by the members.

The annual fall picnic and Mother-Daughter tea were important highlights of the year. New members were officially initiated at the picnic. The Tea gave the proud mothers a chance to meet the club's sponsors; Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Borg, Mrs. Stevens, and Mrs. Nordstrom, who gave valuable assistance to the group.

The members' dues were the major means of financial support. Extra funds were earned by the club's projects which included operating the coat checking system at the basketball games. The group also had charge of admitting spectators at the pass gate for all home football and basketball games.

The members had opportunities to serve our school by assisting with freshman physicals and eye checks and maintaining the health room.

The Junior Red Cross was an all school organization whose purpose was to lend a helping hand to the needy, bring cheer to the sick, and promote good will to students of other lands. Each homeroom was represented by an elected delegate.

Football programs were made and assembled to be sold at the home games. In October a successful membership drive was made among the entire student body. Each homeroom representative urged his homeroom to participate in this worthy drive.

Donations of food and gifts were collected for needy families at Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Gift boxes containing crayons, pencils, combs, and soap, which are scarce in overseas lands, were collected in all homerooms, packed, and sent to foreign students.

In the spring, tray favors were made for local and veteran hospitals.

The officers: Ross Freier, vice-president; Roy Nelson, president; and John Johnsen, treasurer; discuss the activities of the day, which are placed on the bulletin board in room 207.

Regardless of time or circumstances, the members of the Projectionists Club were always available.

This group learned how to operate several types of projectors and to show films. Assemblies and all other programs requiring the public address system were handled by the members.

The home of the Projectionist Club was room 207. Two students were on duty every period of the day to give assistance to teachers.

Teachers made their wishes known by signing a request sheet in the library. On this was indicated the time, place, and equipment needed for each film. Having done this several days in advance, the teacher could enter the classroom assured that the capable projectionists would have everything in order for the visual aids.

The Chess Club has now completed two successful years at LTHS. The object of this club was to provide entertainment for those who enjoy an absorbing game. Mr. Beseman gave the members reading material and tried to help them improve their game.

While achieving success in the game of chess, the members learned to develop their power of concentration, as each play needed careful thought and attention.

The first and third Tuesday evenings of each month were a highlight on the calendar of every chessman, for it was then that the group assembled in the school library. These evening sessions provided the necessary time for thought-provoking games of skill. However, with the large amount of mental activity required of chess players, the time passed rapidly; and it was soon time to end another evening of fun.

David Mitzit is amused, but Kit Pinn gives his next move careful thought.

TIME CHANGES TIMES

Co-editors Margaret Meadows and Betty Anderson take notes while Mr. Ennis criticizes the first issue.

The 1959-60 school year brought many changes to the TIMES staff. The greatest of these changes was that a new teacher, Mr. Ennis, became the new sponsor.

Members worked hard as the staff, consisting of fifty freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors, was considerably smaller. Completing assignments of writing and editing kept the "midnight oil" burning in many staff members' homes.

In addition to school events and sports' news, the TIMES included numerous feature columns. To keep the Porters posted on happenings of other schools, an exchange column was included in each paper. The newest fads and latest fashions were found in the feature, "High Society." A music column was provided to inform the student body of band and chorus news. Lastly, humor and gossip columns, necessary features of all school newspapers, told jokes and revealed secrets in every issue.

The TIMES Staff conserved space by condensing the format, TIMES, and moving it to the left on the front page. Another noticeable change in appearance was the omitting of black lines between columns.

Members of the staff, realizing that changes can bring about improvement, endeavored to live up to their motto: "Good, Better, Best. Never let it rest 'til the Good is Better, and the Better — Best!"

Did you buy your TIMES? Donna Jungles sells a copy to Bill Hilsabeck as Pat Collofello looks on.

"We didn't mind working as long as the cooky plate was filled," said Pat Thompson, Pat Collofello, Mary Ann Becker, Susan Brown, and Bev Startz.

Who says that the editors do all the work? Duane Zielke, Marge Startz, Bob Staples, and Mr. Ennis are laboring while the minds of the editors, Margaret Meadows and Betty Anderson, wander.

"Keep your eyes on the business at hand, Duane!" Mary Ann Becker, feature editor; Betty Landon, Pat Collofello, Duane Zielke, junior editors; Jim Johnson, sports; Kay Ward, circulation editor; Pat Thompson, typing editor; and Susan Brown, news editor.

If the Lockport girls are commended for their sportsmanship, it's because Miss Olson has stressed the importance of this admirable trait.

Here they are, choice of the GAA girls: Pat Feithen, vice-president; Sandy Smith, treasurer; Kathee Murray, president; Donna Gray, secretary.

Miss Chapman's peppy personality is always instrumental in boosting the girls' morales and attitudes.

The girls proved that their enthusiasm is for their sponsors as well as their sports, when they warmly welcomed a newcomer, Miss Harrison.

The ideals of fair play, good sportsmanship, along with mental and physical development can be obtained by participation in the Girls' Athletic Association.

The fall of the year found the GAA'er swinging a tennis racket at the courts, In this sport were basic skills, serving, and scoring.

Soon after tennis was underway the volleyball season began. The number of participants in this sport exceeded all others. At the end of the volleyball season intramural tournaments were held. The winning teams and the all-star team of each class played in a round robin tournament. Seniors were victorious.

GAA members became very busy as the year proceeded. During the winter months she may play basketball and/or bowl. In basketball, as in volleyball, there is a tournament held at the end of the season. Members of the all-star teams were chosen by Miss Olson, Miss Chapman, and Miss Harrison. These girls were selected on the basis of attendance, sportsmanship and ability.

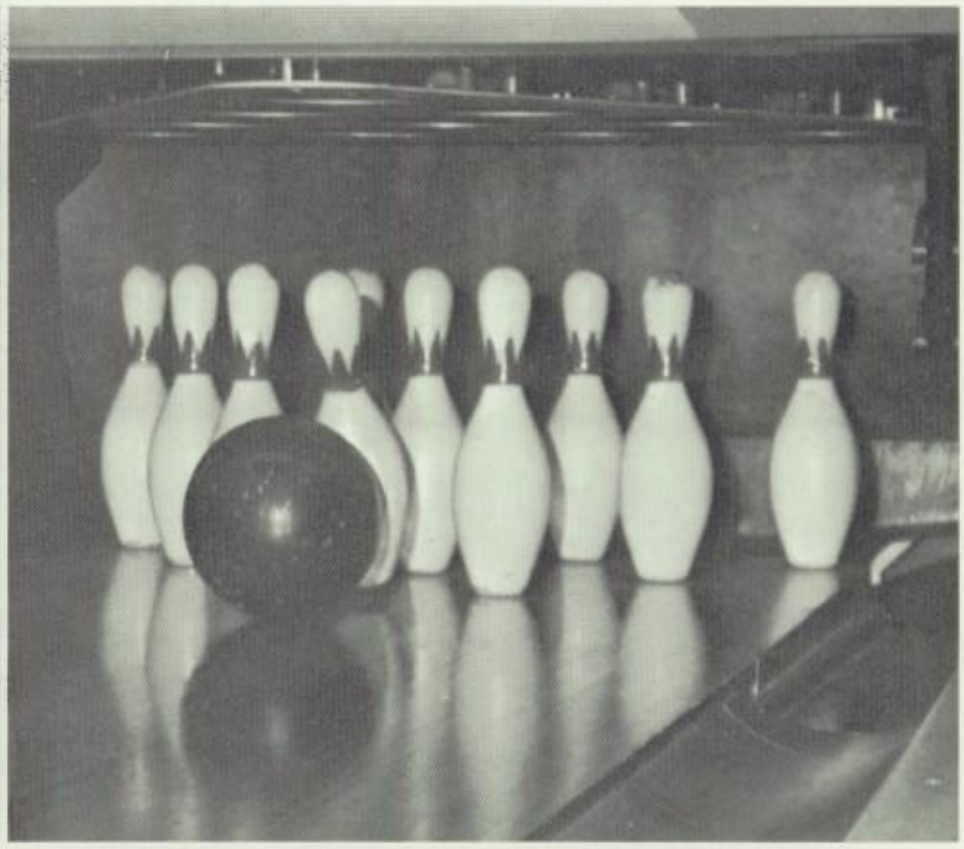
Champions all, who can handle that ball, are the seniors who captured the volleyball championship: Dorothy Winkler, Jean Stober, Ora Allen, Pat Feithen, Sandy Leinbach, Della Smith, Bonnie Mlynarik, and Cathy Townsend.

Fine approach, Karen Viscum! That should be good for a strike, . . .



. . . And it is, as the ball goes right in the pocket. That ought to raise your team's score, Karen!

Bowling was somewhat in the spot-light in the early spring. Ten girls, who possessed the ten highest bowling averages, bowled competitively in the early spring. The names of the five girls who rolled the highest scores were sent to the state GAA office and compared with those of other schools. Out of one hundred and fifty Illinois high schools Lockport placed fourth in this state-wide Telegraphic Bowling Tournament.

Also offered to GAA girls were courses of instruction in Red Cross Life Saving and Water Safety. Those who pass all tests and requirements were awarded their badges.

A great deal of time was spent enjoying the different sports and tournaments. However, they were hours well spent because they gave every girl an opportunity to improve not only her physical stature and athletic abilities but also her sportsmanship, the quality for which GAA stands.

Paper and wire keep going higher — that's what good floats are made of! A fine example was the GAA production for the homecoming parade.

It's the chance of a lifetime, as the freshmen play the initial volleyball game of their high school career.

CAPABLE KEGLERS

Hats off to the telegraphic bowling team which placed fourth in state-wide competition involving one-hundred and three schools. Ten girls participated in the Telegraphic Bowling Tournament. The five highest scores were sent to the state office to represent Lockport. The five high-scorers were Sandy Leinbach, who bowled 137; Kathee Murray with a 144; Jean Stober who had a 130; Betty Landon with 142; and Kathy Nicholls who had a commendable 154. The alternates were Judy Knutson, Donna Gray, Audrey Nordstrom, Bonnie Saunders, and Margaret Meadows.

ALL-AMERICAN PORTERS MAKE "L" CLUB

One of the goals of every boy out for athletics was an invitation to join the Lettermen's Club. To become a member of L Club, a boy must not only have been a varsity letter winner, but also have had the unanimous vote of acceptance by the present members.

The main purpose of the Lettermen was to further school spirit in sports. Among their projects were ushering at football games, handling the half-time show at Homecoming, and raising money for the cheerleaders' sweaters.

When these boys weren't involved in a project or engaged in leading Lockport to another victory in their chosen sport, one might find them having a bit of fun together. Probably the highlights of every year were the steak fries and initiations of new members held in the spring and the fall. Another big occasion was the professional football game that the Lettermen attended.

Whether working or playing, the Lockport Lettermen were certainly a group of our most outstanding students.

HAVE PEP, WILL CHEER

"Let's have three cheers for the cheerleaders!" At all football and basketball games during the year, our cheerleaders did their part in promoting pep and school spirit.

In October eight freshman girls tried out for cheerleading before the entire student body. Two of these were chosen to represent their class on the cheering squad.

Our eight cheerleaders made a neat, striking example of school spirit. Sweaters, purchased by the Letterman's Club, added a new touch to an already becoming outfit.

Their outfits, cheers, and enthusiasm made the cheerleaders a credit to our school.

Neither snow nor rain nor gloom of night can keep the cheerleaders from cheering the Porters on to victory.

"Fight, Fight, Fight for Lockport High . . ." was heard at all athletic events, as the Pep Club backed our teams with a large turnout of enthusiastic rooters.

The Pep Club found itself greatly increased in number with the admittance of freshmen for the first time since the club was organized.

Besides encouraging school spirit and promoting good sportsmanship, the Pep Club was busy making posters, promoting a bakery sale, selling programs at basketball games, and selling school pennants and mums for homecoming. Through these money-making projects, the club was able to provide the cheerleaders with new sweaters, and help supply bus transportation for all tournament and away games. Along with the help of Miss Evans, sponsor; and the officers, the club prospered greatly during the year.

LINE

The smooth operators of the Porter line managed to connect successful plays and winning points to make their 1959 season the best in the past three years.

Trying hard to equal last year's opening game with Evergreen Park, the Porters fought valiantly but were unable to ring up the single point needed for a tie game.

Our first home game with Joliet Catholic High School was the most memorable of the season for this was the second time we have ever been victorious over the Hilltop gridmen in our traditional foe.

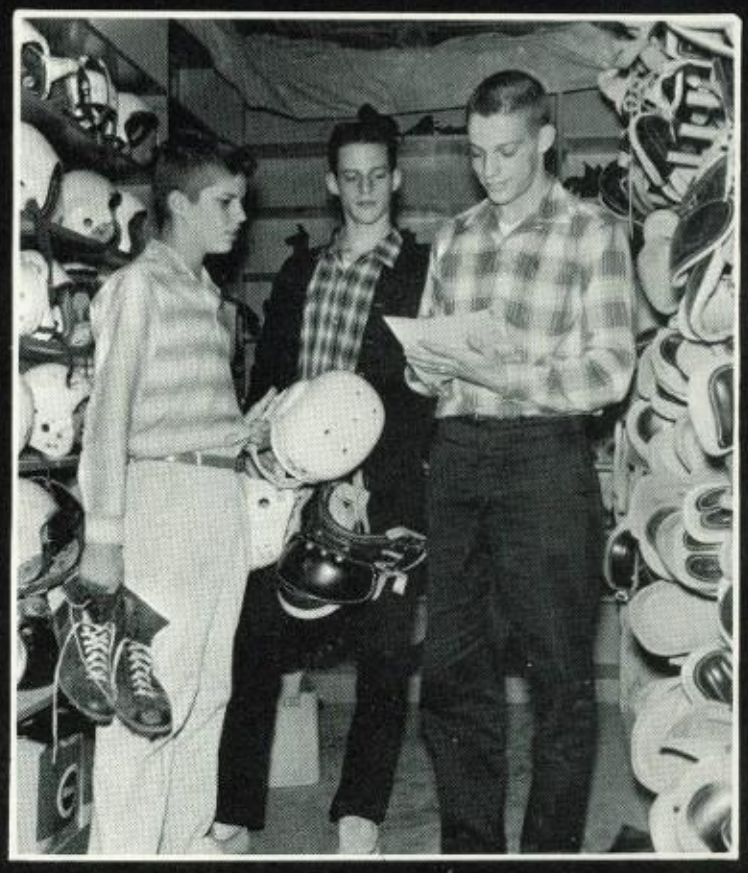
Falling to Argo on their field came as a big disappointment for the Lockport fans who had hoped the Porters had started a winning streak. Things looked much brighter when we met and conquered the Kays.

The next encounter with Blue Island was a loss for the Porters. However, we kept their score at a mere three points.

Homecoming is always looked upon as the highlight of the season, and the tilt with Thornton Fractional South was no exception. In this game we racked up our only tie score. The accent was on spirit in both players and fans, and the tie score was graciously accepted.

Lockport was defeated by the men from Thornton of Harvey as the season was drawing to a close.

The Porter line came through in the nick of time and ended the season with a victory over Bloom's Trojans. This put both teams in a tie for fourth place in the South Suburban League. That game will stay fresh in the fans' minds for quite a while since both the heavy snow flurry and excellent playing made it an outstanding game.



Checking in equipment after a busy football season is more work than anticipated as Ed Murrie and Don Lemmon, managers; and Dave Goeke, head manager, have found out.

On your mark, and on the sound of the gun, the Porters were off on the first season of cross country at LTHS.

An annual state meet proved that cross country is able to hold its own as a sport. But to many boys it also provided valuable training for such winter sports as wrestling, swimming, and basketball.

The home course, laid out on the grounds of Dellwood Park, was the standard distance of a mile and nine-tenths. The course, which was designated by white flags, was rough and twisting.

The team compiled a one and three record for the season. The lone win was against Lemont High whereas the three losses were dealt out by Blue Island, Lincoln-Way, and Naperville. The team also placed second in a triangle meet.

Lockport was ably represented at conference and district meets by Chuck Stanley, Frank Gutierrez, Rowland Meyers, Stuart Brown, Jim Ward, and Jim Johnson.

"57.8 seconds!" Coach Charles Beseman happily informs Greg Gleason he has broken the record for the 100-yard free style. This accompanied Greg's record for the 40-yard free style. Onlookers, Gary French and Jim Smithberg, proved valuable when they broke records for the 100-yard butterfly and 100-yard breast stroke, respectively.

The 1959-1960 winter sports season found the Porter swimmers splashing their way to victory. Our tankmen drowned the hopes of victory for Argo, East Aurora, and Thornton Fractional South. Shining as stars in the eyes of coach Charles Beseman were three juniors: Greg Gleason, Gary French, and Jim Smithberg, record breakers of the varsity team.

George Herman broke four records during the year. He holds the best performance in the 50-yard butterfly stroke, 100-yard individual medley, 140-yard free style, and 160-yard individual medley.

The 40-yard breast stroke record was smashed by Sophomore Dave Holmes, while Freshman Gerald Pekar gave the top performance recorded for the 80-yard individual medley.

PORTERS DIAL SECOND IN SOUTH SUBURBAN

Lockport Porter varsity players finished their stupendous season with a 25—6 won-lost record, making them the "winningest" team in the history of the school. A consolation of the six losses would be that we lost only to teams which were state-ranked at the time we played them.

Among the Porters many conquests were the first place trophy from the Naperville Invitational Tourney, and the fourth place trophy from the Pontiac Holiday Tournament.

This was also the season for breaking records. Ed Edson broke the school's individual scoring record with five hundred and ninety-seven (597) points. Our eighty-six (86) points scored against our great rival, Joliet Township High School, was the highest team score attained by any Lockport Cagers.

Our greatest accomplishment was the capture of a regional tournament crown. At the end of a most exciting overtime period the score remained Lockport 54, Bloom 49, giving Lockport its first regional trophy in twenty-two years!

Although we were downed by Kankakee, sectional, our team record, the sportsmanship of players and fans, and the spirit of each individual will be remembered long after every loss is forgotten.

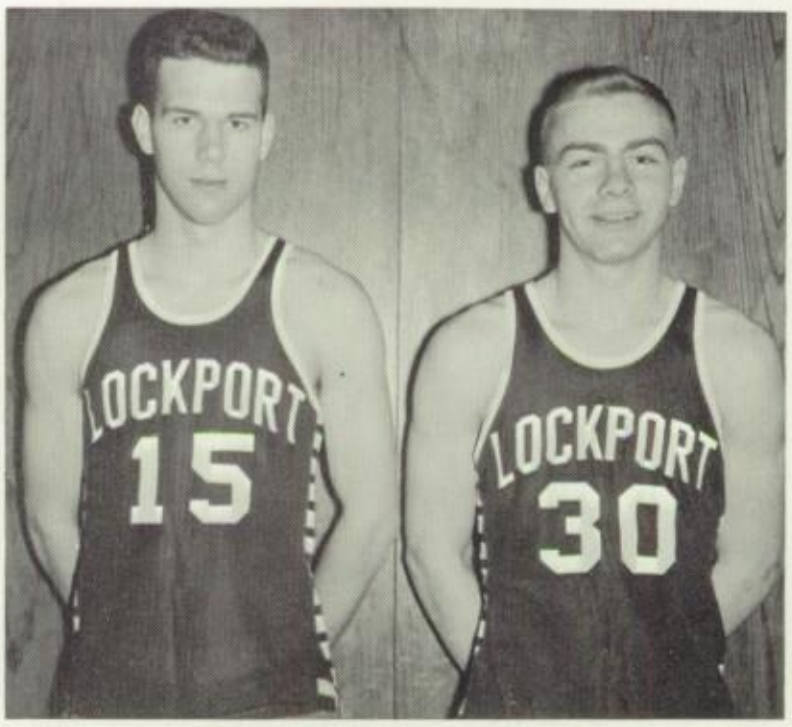
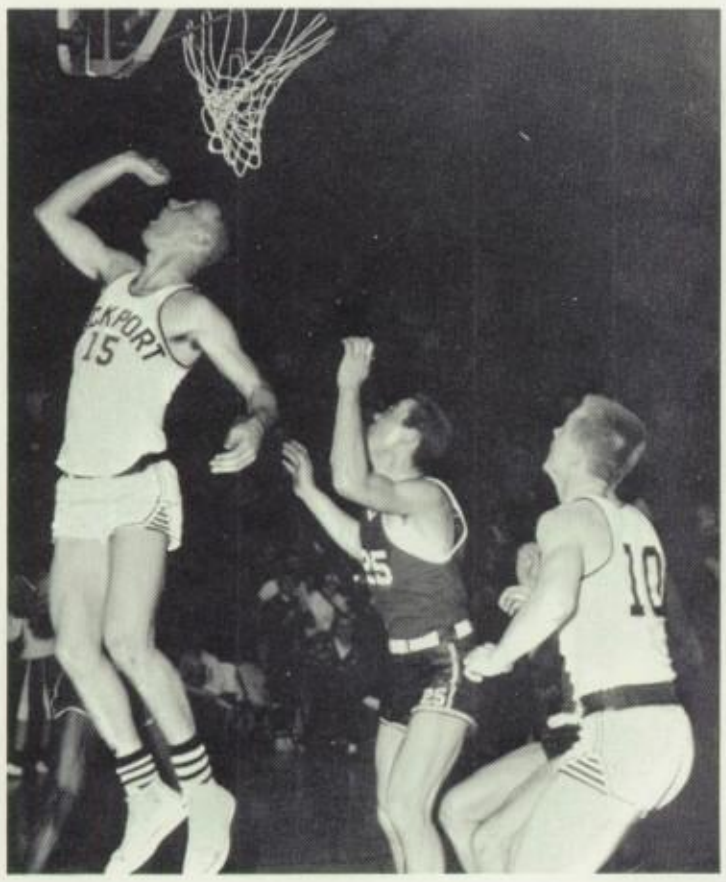
The basket that made history — Jim Long's two pointer was Lockport's 50th point in overtime session of Regional. Dick Dystrup expectantly awaits results.



"Easy Ed Edson," as he was referred to by sports' writers, was a member of the first team chosen at the Pontiac Tournament. The tall center was also a unanimous choice for the South Suburban Conference team and the Joliet Area All-Stars. Ed, along with Bruce Fulton, a junior letterman, was chosen a Chicago Area All-Star.



Ed Edson exhibits the excellent form which enabled him to break the school's scoring record with 597 points, giving him third place in the area.

Jim Long attempts to dribble past opponents as Art Devereaux stands ready to give assistance.

One reason for Bruce Fulton's outstanding ability was his height and point-getting attributes. Bruce proves this by out-maneuvering four Joliet players and adding another two points to boost Lockport's lead over Joliet.

WRESTLERS SEIZE SE

About to earn another five points for Lockport is Jim Rumchak, who is pinning his opponent.

The wrestling team attracted much attention as the boys entered into a great deal of "tough" competition in various tournaments. In the conference the team, wrestling against four other teams, came out in fourth place. Eleven teams met at the sectional and the Porters took fifth place. The team also placed fifth in the district after rivalry between the nine teams there.

The team proudly carried home the seventh place victory after competition in the statewide tournament which included the representation of eighty teams throughout the state of Illinois.

The results of our matches in the South Suburban League play was a record of five wins and nine losses. Although the team is small and as yet quite new, it has made an excellent showing both in skill and sportsmanship.

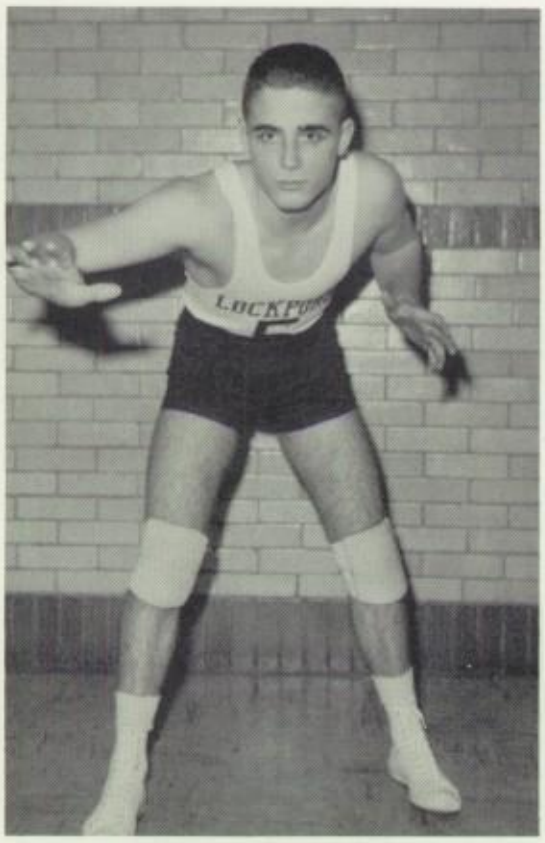
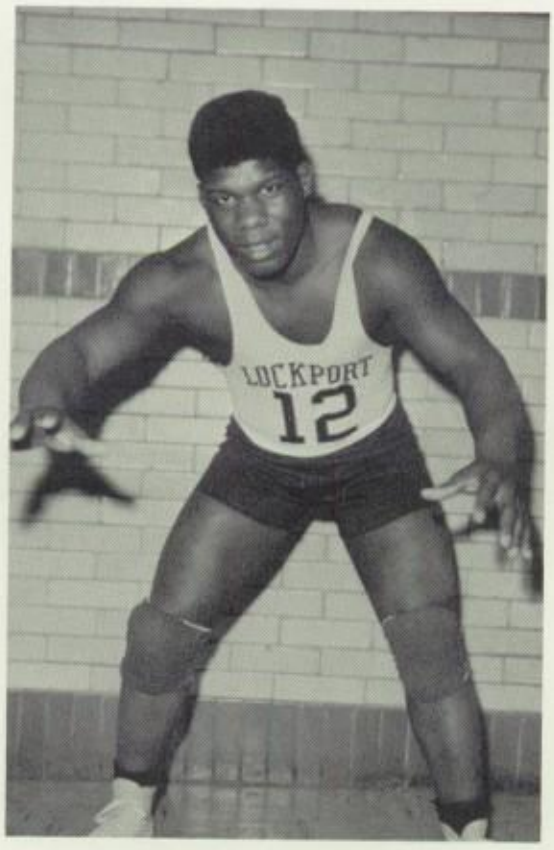
REPRESENT LOCKPORT

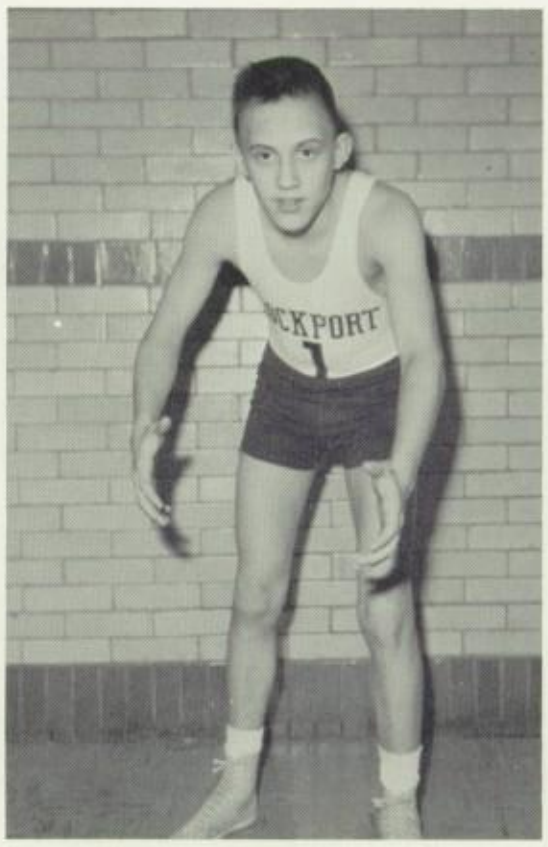
AT STATE.



Stuart Brown, team captain and a tremendous point-getter this season, was a great asset to the Lockport matmen. His record was twenty-four wins and seven losses in the 127 pound weight class. In South Suburban League competition he earned a second place berth. Stu placed third in district, second in sectional, and a creditable second in state.



The best record of the season, twenty-eight wins and five losses, was held by Vernon Voss. Wrestling in the 180 pound weight class, he secured second in South Suburban League play, second in district, and first in sectional. Vernon worked his way to a commendable second in state.



Jim "Tiger" Rumchak held a praiseworthy record of twenty-seven wins and five losses in the 95 pound weight class. In the South Suburban League Conference and in district he held the first place solt. Although he did not win a place in state, he represented Lockport worthily.

Chuck Stanley shows that a sand trap is no great obstacle if proper form is used as he blasts onto the green.

Ralph Larsen capitalizes on his powerful drive as he tees off on the fifth hole at Texaco.

Returning to next year's team is Rowland Meyers, who is making a recovery from a difficult lie in a ruff.

REPRESENT LOCKPORT IN CONFERENCE PLAY

Coach Ed Hill's golf team held a nine wins and four losses record when they entered into district competition at Big Run. Here Lockport captured fourth in a field sporting eight teams and sixteen schools. Local rival Joliet Catholic, won out over all entries with a four man total of 323. For Lockport Chuck Stanley was low with eighty-one, Ozzie Ludwig and Dick Dystrup came in with a pair of eighty-three's, and Stu Brown shot an eighty-five. The Porter total of 332 was good for fourth place.

The Lockport golfers were out to defend their title of South Suburban champs as they entered conference play at Glen Woodie Golf Course. Returning from the championship team in defense of the title were Jim Johnson, Ralph Larsen, and Chuck Stanley. The winner was undertermined because of a tie. Lockport placed fourth with the top four men total. If all seven men are considered, Lockport will be overall winner. The coaches will not meet to make the decision until the fall.

The senior golf members supplied the 1960 squad with the strength, vigor, and determination that is necessary to any outstanding team. BACK ROW: Jim Johnson, David Goeke, Dennis Singletary, Dick Dystrup. FRONT ROW: Stuart Brown, Ralph Larsen, Chuck Stanley.

Under the guidance of head coach Bill Kappmeyer, the Porter baseball team captured the district championship. Holding a four win and three loss record when entering district competition, Lockport drew Plainfield in first round competition. The Wildcats suffered their sixth setback as Lockport behind Ed Edson swamped them ten to nothing. The Porter squad went on to beat Lemont seven to three for the district title.

The Porters handed Joliet Catholic a decisive seven to one loss on the first round game of the sectional battle. Keith LeGrand held the Hilltoppers to a four hit ball game and led the squad closer to the sectional title and the chance to go to the State baseball championship tourney at Peoria.

In the sectional finals the Porters fell to York with a score of three to nothing. York got only three hits off Porter pitching, one off Ed Edson and two off Keith LeGrand, but managed to capitalize fully on them. Prior to the York loss the Porters had a seven game winning streak.

The baseball squad finished second in conference play, their only defeat being Harvey. Their overall record was fourteen wins and four losses, the best record ever held by a Lockport squad.

Because of the energy and enthusiasm of the baseball coaches, each of the squads posted excellent records. Mr. Strobbe, freshman coach; Mr. Kappmeyer, varsity coach; Mr. Heggerty, sophomore coach.

One of the essentials of a good relay team is the passing of the baton. Bill Carr and Ron DaRosa perfect this for a coming meet.

Mr. Jackson, coach, congratulates Frank Gutierreaz on a fine timing after one of his races.

Jim Machak, star pole vaulter, goes up for a record breaking jump.
